DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(a) the invention was known or used by others in this country, or patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country, before the invention thereof by the applicant for a patent.

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bidare (6467847). Note the armrest (10), substantially horizontal position (32), substantially vertical position (70), wherein the armrest does not protrude frontally from the backrest (see Figure 2), curved trajectory (note pivotal movement, as shown in Figure 2), curved configuration (note that each end of the armrest is arcuate, as shown in Figure 2), and guide (98, wherein member 30 rotatably slides upon this member).

Claims 1, 2 and 4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Freedman (3807799). Note the armrest (19), substantially horizontal position (A), and substantially vertical position (C), wherein the armrest does not protrude frontally from the backrest (see Figure 1), curved trajectory (note pivotal movement, as shown in

Response to Amendment/Arguments

Applicant's response filed August 8, 2005 has been fully considered. Remaining issues are described above. Applicant's amendment has overcome the rejection under 35 USC 112, second paragraph. Applicant's arguments regarding application of Bidare and Freedman to the claims under 35 USC 102(b) are not persuasive. Applicant argues that Bidare does not teach an armrest having a curved configuration and that Bidare teaches an armrest with a straight configuration. It can be seen in any of the figures of Bidare that a curved configuration is provided. Note the various curved sections, as shown. Applicant argues that Freedman does not teach that the armrest has a curved configuration. Each of Figures 1 and 2 of Freedman show an armrest with a curved configuration. Note the various curved sections. Applicant additionally argues that Freedman does not describe a downward trajectory because first the armrest must describe a rearward trajectory. Such fails to negate the explicitly shown downward trajectory of the armrest in moving from the horizontal position to the vertical position (C). All remaining rejections are proper.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
